There is no evidence for who this guy is. His most spoken phrase was “lol” which led to nothing. The investigation closed a month later during December, ending the saga.

SOMEWHERE IN NOVEMBER / EARLY DECEMBER：ballisticwistfullygd02 becomes very freaky and rude, most people start to hate them, some even gave up on solving this mystery. DECEMBER 19-20 2024: gravel loses all his pinecones and goes back to 0.

DECEMBER 22 2024: Squishy gets a run of 82%, after that he starts practicing the level and eventually goes back to playing from 0. Later that stream he reaches 87% Followed by a new best of 97% that same stream. His mom later told him that she was on that stream(W).

JAN 24: random3498(fr)

JAN 25 2025: With the coordination of BluExtaByte, Al3ssandro425, and bennettgs, chat manages to count to 100 with no interruptions. Radishman94 a mad cause you weren't allowed to talk in stream (totally true tho)

JAN 27: A LOT OF THINGS HAPPENED TODAY. creeper1184 makes a rule to ban all underage viewers, which eliminates some prominent viewers, like haak80 (for a bit). People debate whether cattomooda should be banned or not, and start a huge drama about how far someone can go until they get banned, and how bad all of cattos actions were. Then, Aant0on says that saying the n word doesnt mean you are racist, and radishman says thats stupid. As a result, Anton gets unmodded.

JAN 28: Squishy gets 57-100 and 16-59 on slaughterhouse
The same day, cattomooda is publicly executed(Happy Happy Happy). His last words were FEBRUARY 1: A brand new viewer is given mod with 0 application needed, 10 minutes of watchtime, and 1 week of followage. The chatter explains that Creeper asked Squishy to give him mod, to which Squishy agreed and gave him mod. Today the guy sent his first message making the whole chat freak out and extremely angry. Chat is protesting saying, "CREEPER DOESN'T CARE AND DOES WHAT HE WANTS, REPLACE HIM WITH BALLISTIC!". This nearly gets wisetree banned, but then creeper finally joins and explains that he's his friend and stuff and that he's trying out for mod. People calm down but are still not trusting the new guy. BRYNJARTHOR WE DON'T TRUST YOU. (Update 2/6/25 from Al3ssandro425 as expected bryn has been gone for 6 days now) (Update hes back on stream and is active in discord but nobody knows for how long)(update I think he got unmodded for inactivity)

FEBRUARY 5TH 2025: Blorba lore starts and gets big

FEBRUARY 6 2025: Chat tries counting to 250, and fails. Bluextabyte leads it. They get interrupted multiple times, therefore blu crashes out. He ends up getting the catto treatment except less bad (gone for 10 mins)
The same day, Squishy gets 25-100 on Slaughterhouse in 5 deaths

February 7 2025: Squishy gets 23-75 on Slaughterhouse and then chat calls him out for "cheating" prompting Squishy to go handcam mode.

ALSO FEB 7TH 2025: Satcho becomes Radishman's biggest opp

February 8 2025: First slaughterhouse progress report!

The First Squishyman Falloff begins

ALSO FEBURARY 8: Chat begs for Squishy to play marbles, and he ignores them. Wisetree spends 40 bits to ask for marbles, and we are still ignored. Squishy is stubborn and says that only wisetree wants marbles. Therefore the entire chat revolts. After a while Squishy says yes and then no more revolution.

Today the broken bones brainrot reaches its peak, everyone hates it and no matter what Squishy does everyone is happy as long as it is not broken bones. (the Squishyman falloff is real)

This stream marks the 1000th upload on Squishy's YT

ALSO ALSO FEB 8TH 2025:

FEB 10 2025: The falloff HAS TO BE REAL. Squishy struggles on 19-21 on Slaughterhouse for 30 minutes literally refusing to go from 0 instead. Creeper donates three times to Squishy totalling 5 dollars only to get ignored. Also a very short stream today. Nothing much happened other than this. So L STREAM. (Fr) (Fr^2) (Fr^3)

The First Squishyman Falloff ends

FEB 12 2025: Squishy gets 46-100 in 2 deaths and 23-100 in 3 deaths on Slaughterhouse

Side story: After Squishy ended stream, we went to Wisetree's Stream. After Wisetree was ready to end the stream he decided to raid wPopoff and when Popoff was done playing Amethyst he raided Bennett.

FEB 13 2025: Squishy gets 46-100 in just 1 death on Slaughterhouse.

FEB 14 2025: Squishy makes a brand new Roblox game called Pinecone Sim. You click a button for pinecones, you sell pinecones for root beer. Every root beer bought greatly increases your pinecones per click. But the best part of the game is the cheese. The cheese has a mind of its own and can fly everywhere at any speed. They mostly sit around for 5 minutes and do nothing. But they can fling structures, trees, etc. Squishy also made ads for the game getting over 100,000 impressions. He also got 1000 visits, and 500+ robux from gamepasses. (dead now)(BIG foreshadowing)

After a few minutes of arguing between Blu and Wise they both come to an agreement that Bennett can co-host. Before everything calms down Blu admits to uploading an unfinished copy of the level publicly to the server, which understandably makes the whole chat mad, realizing this Blu puickly rushes to delete the public copy. However everything has calmed down now and we got a new fire quote. (note from wisetree: every creator including blu and bennett can get the full copy of the level so blu sharing is with bennett was unnecessary as they can access it at any moment)
("Ok so y'all know alpheios right?" copypasta starts on the same day)

MARCH 4 2025: MORE BIG THINGS HAPPEN IN PINECONES TODAY. Alessandro pulls a gravel and wins a gamble all twice, and he gets 20k, making him 2nd. Squishy gambles 30k, loses, and then "accidentally" gives himself 50k, and ends up at 80k pinecones, which is a new pinecone world record. He holds this top 1 spot for a good 10 seconds, then takes them all away, sending him back down to 26k.

HOW THE RESERVE WORKS:
You can only take pinecones from the reserve if a valid reason is included. Not providing a reason for taking from the reserve will not get anything. You may NOT get any pinecones back if you give to the reserve as it is now in the bank. If you get scammed, radishman94 can approve it. Purposefully giving a wrong amount, abusing alts, or attempting to use a loophole will NOT get you reserve access.

Getting Scammed (20 Days Of Not Paying It Back Base If Has Due Date)
Messing up the values while giving, gambling, or slotting
Giving to wrong people

All of these are considered valid reasons for low level reserve amounts to the reserve, aka taking the amount you need under 500 pinecones.

High level reserve amounts are only granted for specific valid and important reasons and mostly only to trusted members of the community. High level access is any mistakenly resulting in over a 500 pinecone loss.

BLORBA LORE:

“I fffFFFACKING HHHHATE Blorba” - RanDOM3485

Blorba was our pet extreme demon who had a child, but sadly Blorba was killed so Blorbas child (Blorber) started his villain arc growing from easy demon to insane when suddenly he was killed brutally. But then, his lost brother, king Blorbus the 15 came with his army to get revenge for his family. He has 2 kids, Blarb II and Bleobrer III. They track down the killer who turns out to be THE ROOK. The epic fight starts with all the forces attacking the rook. The rook kills everyone except the squid game guys who then save the knight. The knight confronts the rook but gets killed and a bishop appears out of thin air and kills the rook. Blorbus finds his army dead and is told that the squid game guys are the only survivors. The rook's body is then found by a moose somewhere in Canada. Blorbus receives a note saying that he will die, making him confused as he thought the dead rook was the killer and the squid guards assure him that it was the rook.It is then revealed by fork that there is a second black rook who killed Blorba and Blorber as well as that the squid game guys are actually spies and shall now be executed.Wait- no they gave everything they know to Blorber and won't be executed now! But the black rook finishes its dark tower, and finds Blorbers cousin, Blorble who he plans to sacrifice and destroy the kingdom.

Fork is now working on getting Blorburs new army ready to fight. They find Blorble and will now try to save him from the rook
